

Jeff Beattie

Senior Project Manager

Jeff is responsible for project management and managing Tri-Construction's project management teams, ensuring project oversight. Jeff began his journey in the construction world through theater and television production in the Twin Cities as a prop builder and carpenter/welder. Moving to New York city in the 90's and becoming the Head of Mechanical Animation Department and union welder for a company specializing in store display. He studied Interior Design at Pratt institute and realized that he needed to learn the business of project execution and joined a general contractor as a Project Manager. He has overseen residential work, Institutional, educational, and extensive retail projects. (Hermes of Paris, H & M, The new School, Lululemon). In 2019 it was time to return to the Twin Cities and family. As part of our executive team, he has found his dream job at Tri-Construction, building community, building opportunities, every project is important.
